

DAVID POWELL

Powell achieves Eagle Scout rank

David Allan Powell, son of Mark Powell and Charlotte Powell, both of Bexley, received the rank of Eagle Scout at a ceremony held at Jeffrey Mansion May 4.

In his honor, Bexley Mayor David Madison designated the day "David Powell Day." Powell's Scoutmaster is John Fenimore.

As a member of Boy Scout Troop 166, Powell has earned 30 merit badges, has been elected to the Order of the Arrow, attended two High Adventure Camps, and participated in a two-week survival trek in New Mexico.

This summer, Powell will attend the National Scout Jamboree and will work as a counselor at Camp Falling Rock near Newark, Ohio.

As a service project for his Eagle award, Powell organized volunteer renovations at the Columbus Zoo, transforming an overgrown area into a trail and campfire ring.

Powell is a sophomore and an "A" student at Bexley High School, and has been a member of the Laurel Honor Society, took part in the Bexley Middle School rainforest trip to Costa Rica, and participated in Drama Club, Freshman Choir, track, The Beacon, In the Know, Environmental Club, Latin Club and Ski Club.

He is an active member of Redeemer Lutheran Church and has done volunteer work at COSI and Faith Mission
